9. THIS AGREEMENT PROVIDES FOR INSPECTION OF LOCKERS BY THE CITY – READ CAREFULLY AND INITIAL
 This agreement entitles the renter to store one licensed bicycle and related bicycle equipment (such as helmet, pump, or lock) in the above designated locker for the above designated time period. This agreement expressly prohibits use of the above designated locker to store items such as: tables, chairs, cartons, vending carts, inventory or merchandise. If items other than a bicycle, or bicycle related equipment are stored in the locker, the City reserves the right to terminate this agreement forthwith. The City will promptly notify renter of the termination in writing. Upon such termination, the City has the right to empty the locker of any property stored therein. Such contents will be held by the City for 14 days and then disposed of by the City as unclaimed property. Any renter whose agreement has been terminated by the City is prohibited from renting a bicycle locker for a period of one year. The City expressly reserves the right to inspect lockers with or without notice to the renter. Renter agrees that the City has the right to ensure that only a bicycle and related equipment is kept in locker.
